
I am Emamuddin, I am a Steward

Name : Mohd. Emamuddin

Age : 22 years

Job Role : F & B - Steward

Income, per month, before skilling : Fresher

Income, per month, after skilling : Rs 25,000

“I am grateful to my trainer and the training I received, as it helped me grow personally and professionally and achieve great heights.”

Resident of Motihari, East Champaran district, Bihar, Emamuddin’s father is a farmer in Motihari, Bihar; the young boy came to Delhi in search of a better job in order to be able to supplement the family income. He took admission at IL&FS Institute of Skills (IIS), Delhi for the 3 month Certificate Programme for a Steward

During his internship with Mana Resorts, Ranakpur, in Rajasthan, he was offered a job as a cashier at an American family dining and entertainment chain, in Saudi Arabia, run by the Safari Group of Companies. On joining, he received a remuneration of app. Rs 25, 000/- per month, with accommodation and food taken care of by the employer. His and his family’s joy knew no bounds; Emamuddin has, now, become a role model for many youth in his village